For your better understanding, Internal Affairs cases are rated against the following standards:

- Unfounded: The allegation is false or not factual.
- Not Sustained: The allegation can neither be proved nor disproved.
- Exonerated: The incident occurred; but was lawful or proper.
- Sustained: The allegation is found to be true.
- Policy Failure: The allegation is found to be true; however, a flaw in the department's policy caused the incident.
