

Proclamation

City of Baytown

MRS. JEWEL CALDWELL JAMES' DAY

WHEREAS, Mrs. Jewel Caldwell James will be honored by family and friends for her longevity of life, knowledge, creativity and experiences she brings to all; and

WHEREAS, she is the daughter of Charlie and Ana Dunn Caldwell born August 5, 1921 in Westfield (Polk County) Texas. She attended school in Crockett, Texas until her parents moved to Baytown in 1937 and she enrolled and attended Carver School (now formerly known as Little Carver). After completing the highest grade in Baytown, she traveled daily by way of the Exxon Trolley car to Phyllis Wheatley High School in Houston to graduate high school. She was the wife of Arthur Banks, Sr. and Jessie James. Although she only had one biological son, Arthur Banks, Jr., she was blessed to raise eight children; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Jewel Caldwell James in addition to being a wife, mother and grandmother, has been a member serving faithfully for over 50 years at Mt. Calvary Missionary Baptist Church in the Senior Mission, Senior Ushers, Retired Ushers and is currently an active member of the Seasoned Saints and the Mother of the Church.

WHEREAS, Mrs. Jewel Caldwell James is a woman of great faith and wisdom who loves the Lord, her church, family, friends and enjoys crafting. She believes that everyone should always trust God and remember that He is the leader of their life.

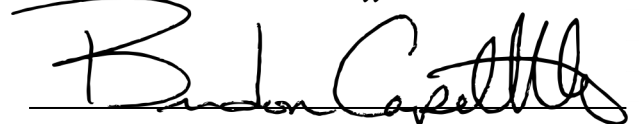

Whereas, the United States has the greatest number of centenarians in the world and today Mrs. Jewel Caldwell James will be honored for her 100 years on this earth; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Brandon Capetillo, as the Mayor of the City of Baytown, Texas do hereby proclaim August 5, 2021 as in Baytown and urge my fellow citizens to encourage you to join me in honoring her for her accomplishments.

MRS. JEWEL CALDWELL JAMES' DAY

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused this seal to be affixed

Brandon Capetillo, Mayor

Attest: _____

Date: _____